“ My mother was like no other. She was so incredible, gentle, patient, loving, nurturing and so much more. When God made her he threw away the pattern. I have truly been blessed for 50 years to have had this pure angel in my life 😊. I will miss her so much. The peace I do have is that we watched that angel suffer so long...she is now in heaven. Such comfort to us all. Her body is a shell 🍷 now but she is looking down on all of us wishing us the very best out of life. I thank you all for your kind words who have posted. God bless you all as she blessed us 5 siblings 💜💖🙏😊

I only met Millie a few times but felt like I knew her a long time. So warm and nuturing. A beautiful lady filled with kindness , faith and an endless love for her family. I will miss her smile and I'm very blessed to have met her and her amazing family. My prayers are with you all but..hey can you just imagine how much she and Charles are celebrating together in Heaven!! Makes me smile to think about!

Our hearts are heavy with grief at the passing of our dear friends mother Millie. Words can only offer some comfort, but the true comfort comes in knowing that the suffering will be replaced by everlasting joy. She will be reunited with her loved ones in heaven. We pray for the family that has been at her side, she surely knew how much she was loved! Keeping you in our thoughts. . . The Cannon, McBride & Stransky Families
