Mollie is survived by her son, Anthony Slacalek and wife, Patricia; two adored grandchildren, Shelby and Logan Slacalek; sister, Inez Flagg; extended family and a host of friends and students, along with many dogs and cats and one horse who always loved her special attention.

The family will receive guests from 5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m., Friday, September 19, 2014 in the Chapel of Davis-Greenlawn Funeral Home in Rosenberg.

“ I was heartbroken to hear of her passing, every time I'd see her she always had a smile on her face, even if she had a rough day, the heavens gained a true angel. Your family are in my thoughts and prayers. She was my teacher in West Columbia many years ago & I always loved her. She taught us lots of good things.

“ I worked with Mollie teaching the same subject for the past 6 years. I learned so much from her. She was always so sweet and could always make me laugh. I already miss seeing her greatly in the halls of NHS. I know she is at peace now and with her husband. I am keeping the family in my prayers.

“ I loved Mollie and I loved working with her. She and I talked A LOT. There is a profound sense of loss among her friends and colleagues, as it is within her family, I'm sure, as well. Put your feet up, Mollie, and rest now. I hope you are surrounded by pets and flowers and everything else you loved. We will miss you.
