“ Uncle Bubba,

Aunt Nancy was truly a special person! She will always be remembered for her smiling face that greeted you when we all gathered together, her special little laugh, that made you laugh with her, and her never ending kindness. She was your special angel every day of your life and she will be sitting on your shoulder continuing to take care of you during your sadness. I can hear her now "Now Allen.... Our prayers and love are with you.

“ When I started with LCISD Nancy was one of the first to greet me. She made you smile and you never left her presence without her contagious smile. Opening Foster HS as the librarian was a daunting task and Nancy was without a doubt one of the reasons that school opened so smoothly. She always had the answers! Bill Wiethorn thought she was the best! Our sincere sympathy to her family. Fondly, Joan Wiethorn and sons, Travis and Tyler
