“ I have just received news of my Cousin Nancy's death. I wrote to her about a year or so ago and never heard back. Now I know why. We were all close cousins growing up in Clyde, NY and I will always have fond memories of what a kind and beautiful girl she was and she remained so throughout her life. I was so shocked and saddened when I heard the news last night from a woman who was in Nancy's class in Clyde, just before our families moved to Texas. She was an inspiration of how to live your life. She will never be forgotten.

“ Nancy was one of my three moms growing up. She always told me things straight years later, we had the chance to take our kids with Nancy and Trey and his family to DisneyWorld. It was a blast sharing that time with her and our own children. RIP Nancy.

Mrs. Jacks was my teacher at South Texas Hebrew Academy maaaany years ago. I never forgot her - she was a wonderful teacher & a funny, kind, caring person. All of us who learned from her were so lucky. Sending love to her boys (who I remember as little boys) & hopes that her memory is always a blessing to everyone who loves and misses her. ❤️

Such a lovely person! One of those teachers that made the students better in the end. Think of her often! Sad that we weren't able to find her before finding this. What a loss to all who knew her.

I found my way here after watching "The Crush" on YouTube. 5th grade Hebrew Academy, around 1980, I just recall a certain grace. Kind wishes to the family and friends.
