“ Nancy you were such a shining joy of God's love and warmth and welcome. Your genuine care for others was a blessing and I will miss seeing you and the hug and encouragement you always offered. I looked up to you and your faith in Christ. I know you are rejoicing and no longer suffering and I'm sure our God welcomed you with a "well done!" To her family, we are so saddened by her passing and praying for all of you.

“ I love you and miss you Nancy. So thankful for our friendship through the years. Your joy was contagious. I appreciate all you taught me about Jesus. Thank you for coming to my home for years for Bible study. Your wisdom taught me so much. I am sad you are no longer here, but because of our Savior Jesus, we will be reunited in heaven again one day. I can only imagine the things you are seeing and experiencing right now in His presence. You are gone but will never be forgotten. Linda Mustain

“ Dear family,
Please accept my deepest sympathy. I haven't seen Nancy for more than 25 years or so. I had known Nancy at KSD dormitory and school in Olathe, KS many years. She's so ,warmest & nice friend.
Miss you, Nancy. Hugs!
