

Nicholas W. Davidson

December 9, 1942 - September 13, 2019

Nicholas “Nick” Wilson Davidson was born on December 9, 1942 in San Antonio, Texas to Golden Lee Davidson and Nadine Belle (O’Mealey) Davidson. He peacefully passed away on September 13, 2019 in Sugar Land, Texas at the age of 76.

Shortly after attending Spring Branch Senior High School in Houston, Texas, Nick began working at DeMontrond Buick GMC dealership. Nick’s knack for automobiles and entrepreneurial spirit led him to a successful, lifelong career in car sales. When he was 22 years old, Nick met—and quickly fell in love with—Peggy Jean Cline. Nick and Peggy were soon married on July 26, 1964. Their marriage would flourish into nearly 50 years together. They made a loving home in Lufkin, Texas raising their two children, Janice and Craig Alan, and later on in Richmond, Texas raising their niece, Hannah. Wherever Nick landed, he made close ties with his neighbors and community, as well as long lasting friendships.

Alongside his wife, Nick enjoyed square dancing, creating stained glass, and going on adventures in his motorhome. His affinity for cars also made him an avid collector of antique automobiles and motorcycles. Aside from his career, Nick was a Freemason for many years and longtime member of Saint John’s United Methodist Church in Richmond, Texas.

Nick is preceded in death by his parents Golden Lee Davidson and Nadine Belle (O'Mealey) Davidson, his sister Patti Rosetta Davidson Raymer, and his wife Peggy Jean Cline Davidson. He is survived by his children, Janice and Craig Davidson, his niece Hannah James and her husband Chris, his brother Craig Davidson and his wife Lynne, his sister Pamela Brakhage and her husband Bill, and his grandchildren Megan and Boden Dechaine.

Friends and family will gather for a service on Monday, September 23, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. at Saint John's United Methodist Church in Richmond, Texas. Following the church service, a graveside service will take place at 2:30 p.m. at Abshier Cemetery in Devers, Texas.
