“ Richard and Domingo Sandy my deepest sympathy on the loss of my Godmother Ninfa. I will always be thankful for her and my Padrino Mingo saying "yes" in excepting the role of being my "Godparents". I only wish that I had been able to spend time visiting with them throughout the years... I must say though that I did always think about them, and with the upmost respect.
May the Father of all compassion and the God of all confort be with you and your families now and always.

“ Richard and Sandy, my condolences on the loss of your Mother, Ninfa.
I'll always carry the memory of her and Tia Francis enjoying each others company...sharing stories, ideas and recipes...and me , joining them in their conversation. She always treated me as part of the family and made me feel special. May it comfort you both to know that others care, May our Lord's tender arms surround you both, as his spirit begins gently healing the sorrow that your heart is feeling.
