“ I'm grateful for all the great memories that I was able to share with her and all of the family. Most memorable would be when all her brothers and sister, along with their families would gather at Grandma Lala's after Sunday morning church for a great lunch, good conversations and lots of laughter. Those memories stay with you forever!

“ My Nina...the epitome of a true lady filled graciousness and unconditional love. Thank you for staying on your knees for us and standing on God's promises so that miracles would come true. I will forever miss the long trips to see Chrissy in college, Sundays at church when you would always have something for me to wear and coffee and cheesecake! I love you Nina, Kiss grandpa, uncle Jerry and Tia for me.....yours always, Annette “ Ninfa was one of 2 beautiful women I so admired. Her gentle spirit, that winning smile and the beautiful music she and her sister made. May they continue to rejoice in heaven and may God grant the family peace and comfort in these trialing times.

“ I'm not looking for the sunset, as the swift years come and go; I am looking for the sunrise, and the golden morning glow. Where the light of Heavens glory will break forth upon my sight. In the land that knows no sunset, nor the darkness of the night. - Reitz 1953

“ O my Lord! Purify them from trespasses, dispel their sorrows, and change their darkness into light. Cause them to enter the garden of happiness, cleanse them with the most pure water, and grant them to behold Thy splendors on the loftiest mount.”

All of our sympathies and love to the Zarate family. We will always remember Ms. Zarate in our thoughts and prayers.

“ The tide recedes but leaves behind bright seashells on the sand.
The sun goes down, but gentle warmth still lingers on the land.
The music stops, and yet it echoes
on in sweet refrains.....
For every joy that passes,
something beautiful remains.

Dearest Sweet Grandmother, we love you and we will cherish your memories forever. Love, Banafsheh, Fardad, Ellie and Paloma Sayyah “ Dear mom, I always will cherish all the good memories. You took me as your own son ,

Fed me every Sunday with your home made Cooking, and the beautiful music you made on the piano. I will always miss you dearly.
You will always be in my heart and thoughts. Love you mom.
