“ Aunt Vernice and family,
I was so sad to hear of Uncle Norbert's passing.
Time goes by so fast. It just reminds me that we must enjoy each day and find the beauty all around us.
I will miss his loving voice, his wonderful hugs and his great fried chicken,
One of my favorite memories was on Easter, years ago.
He was cooking some meat on the grill and as I walked up, he offered me a taste. I ate it, he smiled, laughed and asked me how I liked the rabbit. WHAT? rabbit? the Easter Bunny?
He knew I was a city girl, and he got a big kick out that!
I will always remember that day. xxxo
Uncle Norbert lives on in all of our memories.
Love,
Debbie
Novosad
