Nova loved being a stay at home wife, taking care of her children and grandchildren. She was a strong Irish woman who was famous for her homemade cream puffs and homemade pies. Her love of animals was shown by the many pets she had; her dogs, Ginger and Rascal, her cat, Cookie and her bird, Tweety. Nova's greatest joy was her family. She was a wonderful amateur artist and had beautiful handwriting. God has definitely gained a Christmas Angel. Christmas was Nova's favorite time of the year, and she loved everything about it and left her living room decorated for Christmas year round. She loved collecting dolls and matchbox cars. Nova will be deeply missed by all.

Honoring Nova's wishes, no services will be held. The family is also grateful for the skilled and loving staff at West Houston Medical Hospital, especially her nurse, Shelley, who cared for her.

“ I remember driving by Nova's house honking my horn or just stopping by for a few minutes not long enough to talk to her while she was sitting outside_We laughed, talked about family _ and saying it is " _ " to get old. She was a kind and generous woman. She talked to me alot about her life. We are mothers and that was the bond that we have. Nova you will be missed and when I drive by your house I will be thinking of you sitting in that chair or swing. We used to say "the circle of life". May you rest in Peace. Love, Becky

“ I will certainly miss Nova's great smile, sharp wit and sense of humor. I have missed the great home raised eggs she used to give me. My mother really enjoyed Nova's friendship and their visits at family functions. Mother always told me that Nova was a very classy lady and she was right. One day we'll see each other again and catch up on time lost.

“ Nova came into my life a few years back when our son Chad married her grand daughter Krystal. She was so beautiful inside and out. I loved sitting around talking to her and watching her interact with her family. She loved her family dearly because they were the highlight of all of her stories to me. I was glad that I was able to share part of my life with her and she will never be forgotten. I know she is watching over everyone and smiling with that beautiful smile. You will definitely be missed. To all of her boys, daughter-n-laws, grandchildren, great grandchildren, neices, nephews, siblings and friends be thankful for all of the wonderful memories that you can cherish forever.
