“ Blessings to all of you during this time of loss. I remember your mother when she was young. She was always in the kitchen and cooking for all of you. There was home made ice cream in the back yard during the summers. I loved her chocolate cookies.

“ I have such fond childhood memories of music and BBQs in Aunt Olga and Uncle Louis’ backyard. With deepest sympathy, I am thinking of all my cousins, your families and Uncle Louis at this difficult time. Mom, what a precious memory to share of your loving sister making your wedding dress! With love, you are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I always give Aunt Olga credit when someone compliments my roaster of cornbread dressing. Although not quite as good as hers it's one of my childhood memories when we had a family holiday gathering.
