“ My deepest sympathy to you and your family. Orlando was a wonderful coworker at HEB. We always had enjoyable conversations when he would be hanging yellow coupons on the packaged salads in the produce department. My God comfort you during this most sad and difficult time. “ Orlando will forever be in my heart and prayers. I will miss him very much, but he is now my little angel in Heaven that can pray for all of us down here. My heart goes out to my daughter Gloria and Jaime and Adrian, and there are no words to express the ache in my heart for them. With God's love and mercy we all will move forward one day at a time.

“ Orlando will be in our hearts forever. He never once complained about getting stuck sharing an apartment with all girls in college and just said that somebody had to be the one to look out for us it might as well be him. And he did that. His friends here in Alabama are sending all of our prayers and well wishes to his family during this time.
