“ I'm Don and Nancy Landry's daughter. I remember Ms. Zite from way back when, she would visit my "Ma" Lizzie Landry they would drink coffee and talk and watch "Dialing for Dollars". After Glory my 9 yr old was born, my mom found a beautiful white sweater that Ms. Zite crocheted for me I'm now 36 and it still hangs in my youngest daughter's closet. Glory wore it the first time she sat on Santa's lap and it now fits Grace my 2 yr old who loves it. About 2 yrs ago, Ms. Zite sent me a brownie recipe that she said Ma gave her and she thought I'd like to have it. I'll miss her and all of the fond memories I have of her, Mrs. Grace, Mrs. Petite, and Ma playing cards and talking Cajun! I also remember Velta and Rita visiting often!! My prayers are with all of you! God Bless! Tricia Landry Fairchild
