“ We didn't know Pam very well, just crossed paths on visits to New Orleans. But she was a kind and unassuming lady, and it was apparent how happy she and Steve were together. Steve, we are so sorry for your loss, our hearts are with you.

“ Pam was the joy of my life for over 22 years - 19 in marriage. My whole Houston-area existence has been intertwined with Pam's, and everything I see around here is viewed partly through her eyes. We treasured our marriage, families, friends, vacations, dinners out, concerts, picnics, antiquing and so much more. I know God brought us together in 1984, and God has taken her to His Kingdom in 2007. I will rely on His Strength to get me through the uncertain times ahead. Even though Pam now resides in a City paved with streets of Gold, she will also live in my heart forever.

“ No dearer, sweeter, more loving daughter-in-law ever walked this earth in human form than our darling Pam. She will be forever a treasure to us- more than silver or gold. We know Jesus our Saviour has welcomed her into His Kingdom and she will await our regathering together on the other side--one day--in the "sweet-by-and-by". Heaven rejoiced when you crossed Heaven's treshold, Pam. God Himself has already dried all your tears, for there is no sorrow there, only Joy Unspeakable and Full of Glory. We will always love you Pammy!

“ Dear Mrs. McLaughlin,
Pan and I, along with several others, carpooled to Dothan High School together. There was always a smile on her face and a kind word. My Mom and I passed your old house here in Dothan just last week and Mom mentioned those good times of carpooling. Though I hadn't seen her in many years, news of her death saddened me. She'll be missed and I KNOW she was loved!

“ Of all the people I have met in my life, there has never been any that could compare to Pam. She was so kind, so delightful, so thoughtful and quick to put others first, so trustworthy. She was witty and beautiful, clever and smart. There was not a field of knowledge to be found which she did not possess some expertise. Old songs only my dad would know? Pam could hum them. Old movies? She'd seen them. Foreign language or Sign language? She could chat them. Medical or Computer jargon? She understood it. The joy of travel and appreciation of history? She savored it. The beauty of art, floral, or home decorating? In all of these and so much more she excelled. Most of all, Pam was radiant with joy and love for my brother Steve, the family and above all, our Lord Jesus Christ.

“ To Pam's Family
My prayers are with you and your family.
The Psalms say - Blessed in the eyes of the Lord is the death of His saints. She is with God and for that we rejoice. You have my continued prayers.

God bless and be with you.
