“ I miss my mom so so much. 6 weeks have passed since moms passing. Life as I know it isn't the same without mom. She touched so many lives, and loved life. I am proud to say Patsy is my mom. Most of all I miss her voice, her humour, never knew what the heck would come out of her mouth. Miss you mom, rest in peace with the angels.

Love you dearly,
Melody

“ I met Patsy about forty five years age and we shared many deep personal stories through our lifetime. She always had a smile on her face and a place in her heart for everyone. She loved and adored her family. I just learned of her death a few days ago and I am so sorry for the loss to her family.

“ Patsy was always on the go @ TI & always said hello to everybody. I befriended her & she was nice enough to help me with copy jobs even though they involved huge manuals. Thank you for your kindness Patsy! You were an awesome coworker.

“ Patsy was my neighbor and my friend. Patsy never spoke much and I never heard Patsy ever say an unkind word about anyone. She had a kind and generous heart. When I lost all my money playing bingo, I smile to recall Patsy gave me dimes to keep playing along with her and the rest of the MPSV gang. Often Patsy and I sat by each other when I played, maybe because the good Lord knew I'd need her to front me dimes when I lost all of mine! Lol Patsy loved games of chance and enjoyed sharing them with her friends. She adored her doggie, "Jada," and Jada just loved her like crazy! When we had a social function such as a potluck, Patsy always brought her special baked beans. These events just won't be the same without those beans and Patsy's presence. I feel very fortunate that I had the privilege to know Patsy. I think everyone who knew Patsy would say that. Rest in Peace, dearest Patsy. You will be missed by many and certainly by me, my neighbor, my sweet friend.
