“ I have just learned of Pat’s passing, so many years late. Jim, if you’re still able to see messages on this site, please know that I am thinking of you both with such fond memories. Pat and I did not keep in touch over the years, but for a brief time in our distant past we were such wonderful pals. She was a bridesmaid in my wedding and a true blessing in my youth. My kindest wishes to you and your family. —Angela Dudley Weiland “ *David, I am heartbroken over the loss of your precious mother.

There are few words of comfort at a time like this. Jarrod is so sad. I wish I could be there for you. Your mother sounds like an angel. It is good the suffering has stopped. I know you are devastated, but remember this. She is in the arms of Jesus now, and all is well with her. My prayers are with you and your family. Blessings to all
