

Patrick Allen Poth

April 14, 1946 - December 11, 2023

Patrick “Pat” Allen Poth, 77 of Richmond, Texas passed away surrounded by his family on December 11, 2023.

Patrick was born in Houston, Texas to Claude and Mildred Dreyer, but was raised by his family Jake and Louise Poth, who he called Mom and Dad.

He was a long-time resident of Richmond, Texas where he and his wife Gail raised their family. Pat was the “telephone man,” having worked for Southwestern Bell and AT&T for many, many years, before establishing his own business in communications. Pat never missed a school event his girls were in and was really proud that his girls were graduates of the University of Houston. Pat loved taking trips with Gail in their RV. Pat and Gail traveled all over the state of Texas and his favorite spot was Ruidoso, New Mexico.

Pat is preceded in death by Jake and Louise Poth, as well as grand-daughter Molly Catherine Harper.

He is survived by Gail his wife of 53 years, daughters Angela Wilson, and Melanie Harper and husband Scott, brother Michael Poth and wife Marti, and grandchildren, Liam Wilson, Oliver, Mitchell, and Anna Cate Harper, and many nieces and nephews.

The family will gather at a later date to memorialize the life of this amazing man.

The family wishes to express their gratitude for all of the staff at Methodist Sugar Land who took such great care of Pat and his entire family.

Tributes and words of condolence may be left for the family at www.davisgreenlawnfh.com.
