RIP such an amazing soul. This beautiful and awesome lady was my grandmother's ballet teacher and her winning instructor. She had the patience of an angel. We will forever love her. RIP Ms. Pat

“ "Miss Pat" as she was known to all the kids & parents at Kathleen Parker Dance Studio (& later Sugar Land Dance Center) was an amazing lady with endless patience for all her little tappers. She was always willing to teach anyone who wanted to learn her beloved tap dancing. She was a very special lady and will be missed by many.

Please remember these words of encouragement from the Bible: “ Jesus plainly told her: “I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.” —John 11:20-25.

“ Patsy Alston was bigger than life to me. Ms. Pat was my north star. I wanted to be a dancer from my earliest memory. As a first grader, in then a small Rosenberg town, the dance studio on Millie Street was my lighthouse. Ms. Pat was my guiding light. I studied dance there until I was a senior in high school. My first recital was a pink and black tap number with a pillbox hat, my last performance was a Can Can style pointe routine, and there was everything in between. Ms. Pat taught me how to harness my perfectionism into something beautiful. For being such a small town dance studio, Ms. Pat provided the tools I needed to be successful at the next level. Her technique and vocabulary provided a strong foundation and the confidence for me to successfully dance next to Kilgore Rangerettes and Houston Ballet dancers during summer training. Ms. Pat gave me the confidence and grace I needed to grow into the adult I am today. Before there were dance moms, there were dance teachers that loved and cared for their students. Ms. Pat was my dance mom. I am thankful to be a part of the Pat Alston dance family. To this day, at 47 years old, I can still recite and dance our tap routine to “Yankee Doodle Dandy.” I love you, Ms. Pat.

“ Mrs. Alston was such a beautiful woman. I took dance lessons from her when I was a little girl and was always in awe of how pretty she was. Also went to school with Debra. In fact Mrs . Alston taught my first child how to swim. Lovely lady and I know she will be missed by many. My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this difficult time. Sincerely, Barbara Brown Valentine

“ I'm so sorry to hear about my beloved Miss Pat. I have such fond memories of her as my gorgeous dance teacher from the very early days at Charleston Park in SE Houston. After a year or so, she moved to her studio on Broadway Street just off the Gulf Freeway. My best friend Emily Evans and I took dance from her until we were 13. One year she let Emily & I do a tumbling routine together at one of our recitals - we were Raggedy Ann & Andy. So fun!
Those were some of the best times of my life. She will be missed.
