“ Paul loved life and his priority was family, friends, and service. His many talents and volunteering will be missed. He will always be in our hearts and just a thought away. We are sad to see him go but know he is still looking out for us. He was ready to go "home". Ken and I were proud to call him Friend!

“ Schelly, you were one of the nicest, kindest men I have ever known. You were always there when the council needed your help and for me as a brother knight. We will miss you and your crooked smile brother. Rest in peace.....
