“Daddy was extremely smart, he excelled in his education. He loved that some of my children went to and are going to University of Texas at Austin - his alma mater. He always gave them hook 'em horns whenever they visited. He was the last of 6 kids, just as I am the last of their 6 kids. He believed education was important, however he taught us that following God was most important. He, along with our Mommy, taught us the importance of our Catholic faith. He has impacted each of us in ways only God knows and for that I am grateful. Daddy loved all, unconditionally. He generously gave to others in need. Our friends became his adopted children. We, his family, will miss him horribly, even though we were fortunate to have him with us for 92 years. He has left an imprint in the sand that all can follow and it leads to Our Heavenly Father. As I reflect back on Daddy's life, as the 6th child, I have fond memories and will always cherish them. I'm grateful Daddy was around to love on his 23 grandchildren and 10 great grand children (now 11 great grand children). I'm honored to have written his obituary with the help of my siblings, however it does not reflect all of Daddy's accomplishments in life, as they were far greater!
We love you Daddy!!!
Love your daughter & "Corpus Christi Waterbug",

“Daddy, you were always so kind-hearted, not only to your own family, but to everyone you met. You had a sincere "howdy" and a "handshake for all, and you were so generous; you had a special love for the poor. Your selfless, sacrificial, and long-suffering nature really became even more obvious as time went on, as you endured so much with such great humility, grace and even kept your wonderful sense of humor through such a trying time.

Your strong, abiding faith has always run like a golden thread through all you've done for us, your family, and even perfect strangers. Your big Texas boots will be hard to fill, and we will miss the love you gave us from your big heart most of all, but we know you will never be parted from us, just as we will never be parted from you. You will/are interceding for us all.

Daddy, we want to tell you how much we love and thank you for all the blessings you've always given us, often reciting the Irish blessing In your special way saying, "...May the wind be always at your back, may the rain fall gently on your fields, and until we meet again, may the good Lord keep you in the palm of His hand." We ask the good Lord to bless you in this way especially now, and we know He has.

We were blessed to have such a Daddy & grandfather, and it's hard to believe that you were ours (always will be). Thanks be to God, and No one could ever take your place.

Love, your daughter, Nan, son Bob & Children

“ On behalf of the Wilde Family— Norbert and Mary (Walsh) Wilde and their children: Greg, Denise, Gery, James and Bernadette, I, Mary Denise, would like to send our condolences to you, Nancy, and your family— Paul’s children and grandchildren. As I read Paul’s obituary, I reflected on the 73 years of love, loyalty and lessons of kindness you and Paul left for your family. What a wonderful life you have led! So much to be grateful for in spite of the grief you must feel. Blessings on you and your family on this day and always.

“M

“ I will never forget our many trips to “Jones and Jones” as a little girl and Uncle Paul would always carry me in his arms because Aunt Mary would tell him my little feet shouldn’t hit the ground. My memory of those days and times with him will forever be the happiest in my heart. I will miss him dearly.
