“ I was shocked and heartbroken to hear of the passing of Peggy. She was loved, pretty, special and respected by all the members of our class of '47 at Smackover High School. We talked on the phone numerous times over the years. RIP Peggy, you will be missed by everyone, especially me.

“ I felt blessed to know Peggy. I was married to Jim Boren, Tommy's brother. She was a sweet lady with a heart of gold. Scott, my thoughts are with you. You may not remember me, but I do remember a very sweet blonde young man who really loved his mother. God bless you.

“My MiMi”

*When I was a boy,
Just a little kid,
She saw the joy,
In the things I did.*

*Throughout those summers,
Her house was my castle,
I've forgot all the suppers,
But not the morsels.*

*I'd spend all day,
Out in the sun,
A little boys way,
Of having some fun.*

*Then she would tell me
Its time to come in,
That's when you'd see
My boyish grin.*

*She'd have a platter,
Sometimes a bowl.
Pimento spread on crackers,
Or fruited jello mold.*

*It seems so silly,
To you I know
But that is really
How summers did go.*

*I only hope she sees
How we felt so grand,
With one soft squeeze
When you held our hand.*
