

Peggy Darling Crossan

December 23, 1934 - February 23, 2023

Peggy was born in Mahan West Virginia on December 23, 1934 to Elsie and Bryce Darling. She grew up there and attended Kingston High School and graduated from West Virginia Tech with a degree in education in 1963 and started her career as a teacher. She taught in W.VA. for 5 years and then moved to Houston where she taught at Sam Rayburn High School for over 20 years. She then retired and moved to Coldspring, Texas where she opened an antique shop. In 1996 she married the love of her life, Gene Crossan. She and Gene were members of the United Methodist Church in Coldspring. She led Bible Study and was very active in the Senior Citizens. She lost Gene in 2018 and moved back to Houston and lived at The Delaney at Parkway Lakes Assisted Living where she was active in Ladies of Faith Bible Study, Book Club and various other activities.

Peggy was an avid reader, wrote poetry her entire life and maintained journals detailing her life until she passed away.

She is survived by her sister, Ann and husband Lee Schwebel, nieces Megan Perez and husband Joey, Honor McCurdy and husband Bobby, Susie Smith and husband Caesar, nephew, John Darling, her step children Jeff and wife Pam, Suzan Carico, Kelly Elswick and husband Jeff, 6 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Gene, her parents, Elsie and Bryce Darling, brothers Denny and Gene Darling, nephew, Chipper Darling and nieces, Deanna Doucette and Rita Alexander.

The family would like to thank her caregivers at the Delaney for always being there for her.

A service celebrating Peggy's life will be held at 10:00 a.m., Thursday, March 16, 2023 in the Chapel of Davis-Greenlawn Funeral Home in Rosenberg. The family will receive guests at 9:00 a.m.

“ Dear Ann and Family. Unfortunately, I am not going to be able to attend Peggy's memorial service on the 16th. I am going to be the only one in the office that day. But want you all to know how special Peggy is and was to me and especially to my mom, Mary Swain. During my formative high school days, Peggy was a trusted friend and confidant. She was always soft spoken and always provided good counsel. We traveled together, shopped together, laughed together and ate ALOT together. I will miss her terribly even though we haven't seen each other since her move to Rosenberg. The picture of her confirms that she hadn't changed a bit. I would have recognized her anywhere. Much love you all the family. Mary Grace Swain Hatcher. ”
