“ Some of my earliest childhood memories are of Perry Harrell, as he was known to us. At family gatherings he always had time for his younger cousins and I always looked forward to seeing him. We had some adventures together when I was about 6 years old. One had to do with shooting firecrackers and another had to do with an almost all night coon hunt where I got so tired I couldn't keep up and he and Uncle Edward carried me a lot of the way home well after midnight.

Over all of these years he's been a fine man and one I always looked up to. I know he'll be missed but it's my sincere hope that he's with his mother and mine and all of those that have gone on before us. It's all of our hopes that we'll be reunited one day. So mote it be.mdb

“ My sincere sympathy to Charolette, Douglas, and Keith in the loss of their husband and dad. He was indeed a special man to many. Thankful he is no longer struggling for life and at peace in his heavenly home.
