“ Dear Barbara and family.....So saddened by your loss of Randy here but elated by his gain to heaven. I did not have the good fortune to know Randy personally, but surely he lived all your good loving qualities of you Barbara,that I remember as we grew up. May his spirit be always with you, his smile lighting your future pathways and his love of life continue throughout your family. May God grant you his peace and understanding.

“ Barbara, Bully, Angie & Thad:

*Although I haven't seen or spoken with Randy in recent years, I remember him as a kind and gentle soul. I remember his warm and welcoming smile, his shy laughter. I remember him being one of the only guys who could pull off long hair...LOVED IT!
Robert has many fond memories of Randy, too, especially of "the good ole days" when it seemed like all they did was rope. I cherish the memories of our family Thanksgiving Holidays at the day care. There were many, many great times, memories of which will remain near and dear to us forever. RIP Randy.*
