“ Ray was liked, loved and adored by all who knew him! I was in yoga class the first time he attended! I was amazed at his joyful spirit and perseverance. Ray spoke with gentleness and kindness and even in his failing health was an encouragement. I have never seen anything quite like Ray! Ray was also sharp as a tack mentally, he frequently called me by name greeting me in the grocery store! I know Ray will be So missed by all who knew him. He spoke so kindly of his family and his caretakers. May you all be blessed and comforted as you celebrate his life and miss him in the upcoming holidays and in the months and years to come! God Bless!
Warm wishes, Kim Morris
