“ To the Buchta family: I am so sorry to have learned about Raymond's passing. While I have not seen him in many years, I will always have memories of him in the Guy community and the many visits to Guy store. I know you will miss him dearly. He was such a good man and your mother and father were very proud of his accomplishments. May God spread his love and peace around your families at this time and the days ahead. In Jesus name Larry and Linda Chaloupka
