“ Dear Mr. Ray, I'm sooo sadden at the news of your passing. I know there would be a few weeks that would go by with you not stopping in at The Hill to say "Hello" and drink a coke or two. But I had no idea: I wish I would've had the opportunity to have given you a last " hug" or to ask you how'd you'd been doing. You would always answer " The Good Lord got me up this morning and here I am." Well Mr. Ray, I guess the Good Lord got you up the day you passed on and you woke up in heaven because you were truly an Angel. I will miss you and think about you often. God Bless you and give you eternal peace. until me meet again,

Your Friend, Sylvia
