“ Im a so sad to hear about Reagan. She was truly an exceptional person as everyone already knows. I met her for the first time when I became a volunteer for the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Paint Horse Committee. I felt a little lost that day but Reagan quickly came to me and made me feel so welcome. We had never met before but I felt as if I had known her for years. Each year when I would come back to work the rodeo, it was Reagan that I always looked forward to seeing. I will miss her so much. Im so sorry for your loss.

“ We are deeply saddened to learn of the loss of Reagan. We had the privilege of working with her in the mortgage business for several years. She was one of the most intelligent, responsive reps in the industry and was always willing to lend her assistance. The last time we saw Reagan was when we were having breakfast at Tony's in Sealy, and she and Brian were there having breakfast with some riding friends.

“ Reagan was such a special person and I will miss her so much. I remember meeting her when she was just starting in the mortgage business, and I could already tell then that she was going to go far and have a great career. She was so smart and so funny, and could do anything she set her mind to. She wanted to learn as much as she could about every part of the business, so that she could make a real difference. She was so kind, too. One of the last times I saw her was in the Patriot Bank office where she worked. She heard my voice from way down the hall and ran out of her office to give me a big hug. She made so many people feel so special. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.

“ So many words to describe my buddy Reagan: smart, sweet, sassy, joyful, humble, caring, innovative, energetic, funny, creative, hard-working, the list goes on and on. I had the pleasure of working with Reagan twice, at Inland/Irwin and First Continental. She always had a smile on her face and a good word for everyone. We laughed that even our Mothers had a connection - playing bridge together. It is still hard to believe that I won't get to talk with her again on this earth. Until we meet again, my friend.

Brian and Marilyn, may God bless you and keep His loving arms wrapped around you during these difficult days.

“ *To Reagan's Family:
My sincere condolences for losing your loved one. I knew Reagan as a respected "Pro" in our mortgage industry. She was knowledgeable, caring and a pleasure to be around. Sat by her at several luncheons and always came away feeling better. I came close to landing her on my team at one point. Sorry that I missed the opportunity to work more closely with her.
She will be greatly missed, but always remembered.

“ Reagan,

I'll always remember your sweet smile, it could instantly light up any room. Your enthusiasm and zest for life was inspirational to all who got the chance to meet you. The warmth in your voice made me feel welcome and like an old friend on our first meeting, God's Peace Reagan.

Brian,

Words are not adequate and so difficult to come at a time like this, just know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I wish you God's help in the difficult days ahead. Please remember there is an entire community of friends out there, any of which will ride halfway across the country if you are in need. Whether the need is large or small, maybe just a short visit over coffee, all you need do is ask and we will be there for you. In the darkest hours ahead remember there is a new "star" in the Heavens tonight and she will surely guide you through the toughest of times.

*God's Peace,

“ Reagan
I remembered when I first met you, you had a sign in your office that said: The Keeper of All Knowledge!
these 2 words described you very well. I always came to you on every questions I had including personal and work related and you will always have the answer.
I will never forget how you supported me during my diet plan, your daily reminders about walking the stairs, the weekly healthy menus, the George foreman that change my lifestyle, did I tell you I lost 40 pounds.
You came to the world to be an angel for so many of us!
Thank you Reagan for been the "Keeper of all Knowledge"
