“ I am so sorry for your loss. Becky and I were extremely close when we worked together but since then we only talk or see each other two or three times a year. I had text her occasionally to see how she was doing but she would always say she was ok. I didn't know until last Saturday she had passed. It was like my heart stopped for a second. Becky was such a good person in every way and she will be missed by everyone that knew her. You are all in my prayers.

“ Becky was a hoot! I loved sitting with her at Thanksgiving and gossiping and she gave me the easiest and best party snack recipe I've ever received. It goes as follows, and I quote, " So lay a chunk of cream cheese on a really nice plate then dump a whole jar of pepper jelly on top and people will think you're a genius" , she was right, going to miss you Becky, Godspeed.

“ Greetings from Pennsylvania! We are saddened by Becky's passing. We were friends from Williamsport long ago when Becky lived in the area, she (and then husband Tim Emig) and a gang of us would hang out together, laughing, going bowling and camping. Rest in peace, Becky. Love to the family, from Texas and from Williamsport. Farewell, Theresa and Jim (Homer) Dellomo

“ I'll miss you so much! We became fast friends when I moved in across the street from you in the early 90s. Our kids played together and we would hang out on our driveways laughing and just having a great time. Until we meet again!
