“ My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. This has always comforted me, may it do the same for you: Ecclesiastes3:1-4 To every thing there is a season, a time to every purpose under the heaven: a time to be born, a time to die, a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal, a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance.

“ Both our son and daughter had the privilege of having Becky for their speech teacher during their years at Travis Elementary. They both started speech services at the age of four, so 'Miss Becky' literally was their 'first teacher'. The caring manner in which she worked diligently with them was a wonderful beginning to their school careers. She was truly special, and touched many lives. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I worked with Becky for the last five years and there wasn't a time that we spoke when she didn't find something positive and encouraging to say no matter how difficult or frustrating the situation. She was a true woman of faith who through her example made me a stronger christian, mother, wife, and speech pathologist. I am so glad that God placed us on the same road in life. My sympathies and prayers are with you Larry, Jordan, Jill, and Jessi.

“ Larry, As you know, my time with Becky goes back to her student days at UH when she was a graduate student and I worked there. My remembrance of her, and I think I shared this with you recently, was that she was always calm and peaceful. She worked for us as a graduate assistant and her interaction with her fellow students was with professionalism, helpfulness and genuine affection. She was an easy person to love and respect. I'm sure many will miss her, most of all, of course, you and your children. I think they must know how lucky they were to have her. You are in my prayers.

“ On occasion I had the chance to visit with Becky in the teacher's lounge at Travis Elementary. Almost every conversation we had was about her children. She was so proud of you guys. It was obvious in the way she spoke of you. Becky, rest in peace.

“ Larry, Jordan, Jill and Jessi, my heart breaks for you. May you find peace and God's grace through this difficult time.

Jill and Jessi, your mom had such a kind, soft and peaceful presence that shines through both of you. I instantly smiled and gravitated toward your mom when I saw her in recent years, and I get the same joyful feeling when I see both of you girls.
