“ I met Gina in 2006 when we both got hired at Home Depot. We had many long talks and hung out together and talked of our dreams. One of mine at the time was to move to Alaska she wanted to make a plan and come with me. As I write this, I remember Gina's laugh and wonderful wit and sense of humor. She was a fun person to be around and I loved her! Rest in peace. She told me it was terrible for her to be so ill and I hope she is in complete peace now!

“ Thoughts and prayers for the family. So sad. I so enjoyed working with Gina at Home Depot. She referred to her department as hardhead ware. I have to laugh when I remember how she referred to Chic Fil a as Fil a Chic! She was a hoot. She will be sorely missed!

“ Mrs. Holub, I remember "running the streets" with Fish years back. If you looked up the definition of friend, her picture would be there. Ask anyone - Skippy, Buckets, George. She would be there for you. May God's love lift you all and the cherished memories guarantee she will survive in our hearts. Liz. B.

“ She was a second mom to me growing up. Always there with an ear to listen, a shoulder to cry or a firm hand for a knock on the head when I need it most. Going to miss you Fish.
