“ *The Otto's are going to miss the simple wave, the one blind always being up and the delicious grapefruit you would share with our family. Our girls will miss getting to deliver a Thanksgiving and Christmas meal; Ainsley & Emmi always looked forward to taking "Uncle Frenzels" a little something. We will hold on to the nice memories and miss the kind neighbor on the hill!
In Christ's love,

“ I really enjoyed growing up next door to my Great Great Uncle Rubin. Fresh peaches off of the tree and always plenty of candy. He had an old sheep that would ram us boys and we had to time our run across the pasture accordingly or we would get trampled. He put a gate in the fence just so me and my brother could come over and bug him. I remember once I had him cracking up, I was thirsty and he caught me drinking water from his dog Snoopie's bowl.
