“ I was so blessed to be there for you, brother, through thick and thin. We were so close throughout our lives growing up, I was not only your sister but your best friend, your second mama. I didn't always agree with all of your decisions, we had disagreements, we argued, but in the end it all worked out like always. We could never stay mad at each other long. I was very blessed that God gave my kids and I several years of time together. You seeing my kids grow up spending time with all of us over the years. I was blessed to talk to you, brother, for 3 hours in the morning a few days before you left us. Thank You, Jesus, for that. Another blessing you gave me. Thank You Lord for giving me all these wonderful memories of my brother before taking him. I will never understand why, but I won't question. RIP brother until we meet again. Always thinking of you, missing terribly. Love for ever 🕊️
