“ *Richard and Melody,
So sorry to hear about your dad, When I heard about your loss the first thing I thought of was seeing him walking across the street from that old ford truck with the Falstaff label on the door.*

“ Dickie and I were lifetime friends. We went to Garden Oaks Elementary school, Hamilton Junior High school and Reagan High school where we both played on the golf team. After graduating from Reagan Dickie went into the Army and I went to college. After Dickey returned from the Army he called and ask if I knew any girls from Houston. So I set Dickey up with a girl from our high school class and I had a date with Jean Morris. We double dated and went to a play at the Alley Theatre. Jean, who was a cutie, stole Dickie's heart that night. He called me a the next day to ask if Jean and I were serious. I said "no just friends." He said I am thinking of asking her for a date. I said "great." Later Dickie and Jean married. The last time I saw Dickie and Jean was at my 50th birthday party in Austin in 1983. Now both have gone to a better place and I miss them both. They will be in my heart forever.

I send my heartfelt condolences to the family
Dickie and Jean's friend,
Don
