

Richard James Kearney

February 19, 1940 - October 28, 2017

With his wife Lucille at his side, Richard James Kearney began his final journey in the early morning hours of Saturday, October 28, 2017. Born in New York City to the late James and Wilhelmina Kearney, Richard is predeceased by his sons Richard Darren Kearney and James Darrell Kearney. Richard earned a Bachelor's degree in history concentrating on Russian and Chinese studies from Fordham University and a Master's degree in Chinese studies from St. John's University. After moving to Sugar Land in 1980, Richard joined and retired from the U.S. Postal Service. An avid sports fan, Richard was knowledgeable about football, baseball and hockey. He enjoyed reading, painting military miniatures and bowling but these took second place when Richard and Lucille started riding, showing and breeding reining horses.

Richard is survived by his wife of 47 years Lucille Kearney, son John Scott Kearney, sister Kathleen Kearney, brothers James and Dennis Kearney and four granddaughters. His love, loyalty, mind and humor will be sorely missed.
