

Richard Craig Zak

August 30, 1971 - June 8, 2022

Our beloved son, brother, and uncle, Richard Craig Zak, earned his heavenly wings on June 8, 2022. He is survived by his parents Richard and Annie Zak, sister Suzanne Crippen and husband Darrell, niece and nephew Elizabeth and Benjamin Crippen, and special aunt (Tete) Loretta Zak. He is preceded in death by his grandparents Frank and Annie Fojtik Michalek, Louis and Louise Pekar Zak, and special uncle Edward Zak.

Everyone who knew him called him Craig. Many knew Craig as a good friend who would lend a helping hand to anyone who needed it. His favorite passion was fishing, and he often took his boat out to Chinquapin Bay in Matagorda to wet a hook. He was a skilled handyman and took pride in maintaining his boat, vehicle, and parent's home. Family time was precious to him, and he often cooked Sunday dinners. He thought the world of his niece and nephew, Elizabeth and Benjamin, and always encouraged them to be the best they could be.

Thank you to everyone who kept Craig in their prayers. He is now at peace and free of pain. Special thanks go out to our dear family friends Jan Abendroth, Marnie Peters, and David and Cecelia Talamantez for their unwavering support and continued help during this most trying time.

Neighbors and friends from birth..so sorry for the loss of your only son. I can't imagine the hole In you're heart. Craig was loved growing up, by all the neighbor's. He, Tim and Randy spent many hours riding in the street and playing together. We lost track after we moved from the neighborhood but always thought highly of your family. We share the loss with you, and will see you at the viewing. Lenette Heideman

I will miss this man. He had such a sweet, quiet spirit and a funny way of making me laugh and enjoy silly things together. We shared so many happy hours in a bass boat with him trying to catch "the big one" and me secretly slipping his bait overboard waiting to see if he would catch me. We shared many happy hours talking under the stars about nothing and just listening to the "night critters" as he called them. The world is a worse place without Craig in it. He will be sorely missed.

“ Craig was "my other son" as he and Lance were lifelong friends. I was glad they waited until their 40s before they started to confess all they had done together while growing up! Most I can't share. Craig was always there to assist me in anything I needed. The same for my friend Marni. He lovingly called her "Little One" which she loved. We will miss Craig more than we can imagine. Rest in peace our dear boy. You deserve it.
