“ It is always so hurtful to hear about the loss of a friend. My deepest condolences to his immediate family and closest friends. In my mind I see Robert as still a kid/teen. What I remember about him is his smile, how he always made me laugh by messing around & picking on others in a friendly way, and the good person he was, always getting along with others. He hardly ever was serious. I'm glad to see he that he never changed by the looks of his pictures with his family, and that he lived his life to the fullest. Becoming a great husband and father. your absence will be felt greatly. Please watch over us all especially your beautiful family. May you rest easy Robert. Gone way to soon, but only God knows why.
