“ Alice I have been remembering some of the good times we have had. I rember Robert picking me and my 2 children up at the airport and my sisters and family came over to your home for supper as I was moving to Germany as Lowell was stationed over there for a 3 years .and then another time you all took care of 2 of the kids as I was meeting Lowell in Hawaii, as he was stationed in Vietnam . This is how I rember you Robert & Billy

“ Coach, It was a pleasure to meet your parents. I loved seeing them at the ballpark. They were great Tiger supporters and were so cute together. In addition, I was honored when they would come into the store to buy bacon and sausage.

You will miss your father and you will need to give your mom support. I lost my dad 7 years ago and there are many times I will have questions and I wish I could ask dad. You will find that dad will still answer them.

It is a sad time. You and your mom or in my thoughts and prayers.
