“ Blue was a life-long friend of Oscar Lee & then ours in the last 54+ years. My deepest sympathy to all the family. There's a big happy meeting taking place in Heaven right now.

“ So sorry to hear about Blue. Long ago he lived with my mom and dad. We were good friends and had lots of fun. Thinking of the family and that God is there for their pain and suffering. Feris Jo Frazar

Thanks Ferris Jo, I remember coming to your parents house when we were kids. Bess Lodel babysat us sometimes. You all were Daddy's second family and he truly appreciated you all.
Best regards, Roxie

I met Blue when we both worked at Ed Thomas Co. I started my business in 1979 and called Blue and said, I need you to pipe a cooling tower for me. Blue asked me if I had a welding machine, pipe jacks, cutting rig, ladders, welding rods at which I replied no. I explained he would need to bring all that with him. Blue said, guess I will have to bring all these tools I have accumulated from Shell Oil.

As I picked up more work Blue said, Kirby you are gonna have to pick up some tools. As it worked out what was just a cooling tower change out, Blue was with me until he retired. Blue always said Kirby if you can sell it, Blue can put it in. There was never a challenge too big for Blue. As the company grew Blue said, Kirby how do you expect me to put all this in at which I replied you said, you were the best and there was no job I could sell that you could not put in. The company evolved and grew because I knew I could sell the work and Blue would put it in.

Customers loved Blue and I knew he was the reason I could succeed. There is no other like Blue. Company Christmas parties the BBQ was always cooked by Blue who after all food cooked requested his Crown Royal 3 fingers neat and insisted the women to bring him his drink. Blue would take a walk about and I would have to explain to the customers Blue had some important business to tend do but would be back soon. He adored and loved his family and life.

*Blue lived a large life, did what he wanted and I will miss him dearly.
Rest In Peace Blue*
