“ What a guy!! Bob was a pleasure to work with... all 25 years. A gentleman always. He was a perfectionist that I tried to model myself after. I was so sorry we were on vacation the day of his funeral or I would have been there without a doubt. I have so many hilarious memories in Hobby ops with Bob. He was truly loved and adored by many.

“ I only got to meet Bob once and did indeed think he was a really nice guy. He truly must have been from all the wonderful words expressed in this guestbook and for all the positive and loving things I have heard over and over from his family...Gladys, Dawn, and Robby. To those 3 especially, my deepest sympathies. You are my Texas family...you hurt, I hurt. Wish I could have been there for a shoulder, for talks, for hugs. Wish I could still be there for you now. Love you guys! Please take care of one another! XOXO

“ What was it I loved and appreciated about Bob?everything! His work ethic and professionalism were tops. He was wonderful to work with, with his easy sense of humor, wry wit and smile, and how he would shake his head when he was upset about something, then smile, leave the cockpit and wave as you pushed back. He was truly one of the good guys and we'll all miss him. Our best to all of the family.

“ All of us at Southwest Airlines would like Bob's family to know that we loved Bob and that we valued his friendship, easy smile, genuine sense of humor, terrific workplace presence, and entertaining personality. He was an easy guy to like and to admire. We should all be so lucky to live life as fully as Bob was able to do. The Southwest family is greatly diminished with his passing. We will always smile when we think of him. Our deepest sympathy during this difficult time.

“ Bob,

You were a bright light every day I came to work. When I couldn't find you, I can still hear Ellie shouting, "OTEEES, your Daddy is looking for you." Your intelligence, wit, and dry sense of humor sustained all of us through some tough times and we are all indebted to you for those gifts. We will all treasure your friendship and the many fond memories you left in our hearts.

“ Dear members of Bob's family, what a wonderful guy Bob was. As a fellow employee of Southwest, I was always happy to see Bob working my flight when I pulled into a gate or came down the jetway to start a trip. Bob always had the situation in hand. He had the model "Soutwest can-do attitude" and that couldn't help but lift you up. He will be missed by many of us who have retired and didn't see him on a regular basis. Till we meet again Bob, God bless you and your family.

“ Dear Bob, My life has been enriched because of your life. For that I thank you. Even on the darkest stormiest nights, when I pulled up to the jetway and saw your smiling face, the sun always seemed to shine. Your profesionalism and dedication were unmatched. And thank you for the little song you always sang to me everytime our paths crossed. I will truely miss you. Look over your family from above, as I am certain you will. If I am lucky enough to be there with you, it will once again be a joy to work together and push on time. Your friend, Terry

“ As a retired Captain with Southwest with 22 years at the company, I dealt with Bob numerous times and he with me! One time in particular set the tone for "our" relationship. I was a First Officer in '82 and one night Bob came to aircraft to tell me that I would have to "ride the brakes" to parking, expecting a groan from me. I said, "Just TRY to wipe this smile off my face". He said the same. That became our little buzz phrase for the rest of time. I'll miss you, Bob. My thoughts are with all of you in his family and those in that wonderful ops crew in Hobby who knew him.

“ Dear Bob,
What a dear friend you were when we were all so young in the early years of Southwest. You had a smile and a kind word for all and you have touched the hearts of everyone who were blessed to know you. Your family was always the most important thing to you and Tiffany's words show that your caring ways will continue through them.

“ I had the great pleasure of working with Bob at Southwest Airlines in the late 1970s and early 1980s at Houston Hobby, and he was quite a character. His friendliness, enthusiasm, and joie de vivre and not to mention a wry sense of humor made him a pleasure to be around. He was a consummate professional in his job duties, and taught many a “newbie” the ropes of how to properly do things the “Southwest” way for the benefit of our Customers and fellow Employees. He was just a great guy and one of the most fervent baseball fans I’ve ever seen, and he will be greatly missed.

“ Family and Friends,

I was dismayed to learn of Bob's passing. Having just buried a friend of 35 years, Bob's death has left me little time for healing. Your Father, Grandfather, Uncle and friend was a very special man - one we can all learn from. His contagious love of life was an inspiration to us all. As a pilot for Southwest I had the pleasure of working with Bob for many years. He made my days easier and my heart lighter. Bob was loved by many as evidenced by the beautiful sentiments expressed in the many testimonials. Until we meet again.

“ Bob has been described by his family as an angel on earth and I would like to add that he was a prince among men. If you ever arrived at the gate having a bad day or in a bad mood it disappeared as soon as Bob opened the door and lit up the cockpit with his smile and quick wit. He was the ultimate professional and I truly believe he loved everyone and everyone loved him. My heartfelt condolences to all his family and friends. He will be missed by all.

“ Dear Mr. Bob,

Even though I've only known you for a short period of time I have a lifetime of respect for you. What you have done for your family I can only wish to be half the man you were. A real Man Who took everything he worked for to make sure his family was ok. I hope that when I create my own family I can follow your example as a man, father, and grandfather. Your presents will definitely be missed.

Much Respect,

“ Dear Pawpaw Bob,

I want to take this time to tell you how much I appreciate everything you did for us. You always made sure that we were taken care of and made sure we were ok. I will never forget the times you would call us just to "hear our voice" and tell us you loved us. Thank you for so many happy memories. You truly were an angel on earth. I loved how you made everyday special for us and we're so very thankful for it. I miss you so much already and I still can't believe you're gone. I told mom that I was so glad that I went to eat with yall last Monday because when we were leaving I got to give you a BIG hug, a kiss, and to tell you I loved you. That will always be the best memory in my heart. I think of you all the time and I can hear your voice in my head. You'll always be with me. Thank you for being there for us. You are a very special man. We love you!
