“ I grew up in Needville and first met Darrell when he married Martha and joined her at R&R Dept Store way back in the 70's, I remember him as a kind and friendly man to us teenagers running around with Denise and Cheryl at the dances in Fairchilds and around the area. I have been gone from Needville a few years now but the memories of wonderful people who touched one's life never go away. God bless the family and we share our deepest sympathies.

“ Tom & I will always share pleasant memories of visiting with Darrell during our trips to Texas. He was the one that introduced us to one our favorites - Bob's Tacos! Darrell and Aunt Martha were so hospitable to me during my trips to visit Aunt Gladys when she as sick. A particularly fond memory is the Blue Bell Ice Cream binge we would have in the evening! Our lives will forever be enriched having shared in our love of him 🙏❤️💕. Janet
