“ Elizabeth,

I am so sorrow to hear about Robert's passing. Sorry, but relieved that he is no longer in pain. I will keep both you and Charlie in my heart and prayers as you navigate the road ahead. Know that there are now two angels in heaven watching over you and the litle man...your mom and husband. If you ever need to talk or vent, I'm here, anytime of the day or night. Hugs to you both.

“ Dear Elizabeth, Charlie, and Family

I was best friends with Robert from 9th grade on. Eventhough we were separated by many miles later in life, I have fond memories of him. Whether it was playing basketball, football,or just hanging out, Rob was a good guy to be around. A few years ago he sat next to us at the Army /U.H. football game. I still to this day can't figure out how he came to sit by us purely by accident. It was good to see him then. On behalf of my family, I would like to express our deepest sympathies to you. He will be missed

“ Hello there, Beth and Charlie! I am thinking of you both today as I know you are preparing to celebrate Robert's life as a husband and father. The warmth of his love and memories will surely strengthen you to weather this loss. Having read more of your web site posts, Beth, I have no doubt that Robert is ceili dancing right now, having a grand time and happy not to be in pain. We all are left to carry on until we also go to the dance. Much Love, Fondly, Robin
