“ Please let me if this is the Ronald Hollas who went to Immaculate Conception School in Houston in the 60's. They closed the school in 1967. This Ronald had family in Columbus TX. He would share his stories with the class. Thank you.

“ Raymond and I had the opportunity to meet Ron and his family at Sts. Cyril and Methodius Catholic Church in Dubina Texas many years ago. Mackenzie was a toddler then He soon came to our church picnic along with Ralph Novasod to lend a helping hand. He was a hard worker and had a huge smile on his face..He could make you smile even tho you didnt feel like it. After many years of not seeing him I was totally shocked to hear his voice on the phone. He was getting things together for the Gansky reunion. I did not know him that well but I knew he had a love of family and the outdoors. To all the family and friends we send our heartfelt prayers.Each and every one of you have special memories....don't let anyone take those away from you. God Bless “ Cody and Family, I just wanted to drop a few words of encouragement on the death of your dad. I always had a lot of respect for Ron due to he took over as grand knight right after I joined the KC's and always made me feel like a like a vital link to our organization, especially when he used to be the chairman of the BBQ chicken fundraiser. He used to always give my dad and I credit and praise for taking care of both the eating and mop sauces and I missed working with him on it after all the medical issues arose. I hope he is walking in heaven again and I know he is free of all the pain he has suffered over the past 5 -10 years. I tried to make the visitation, but was on call and had to go out on a call right at 4. Maybe your dad was trying to tell me something looking down from heaven. My prayers are with all of you.

“ With great sadness is the loss of Ronald; a great cousin, a strong steward of the Hollas Family and above all a fighter with strong will and even stronger character. Of course we always knew him as cousin Ron, the great spirit of the bunch, whom always had a smile and cheer bigger than the rest. I have such great memories of Ron and the life he lived. I always remember as a young cousin in my early years, looking up to Ron and thinking "wow, that guy is so admired, so handsome, so full of life". He carried himself with the pride and dignity of knowing he was the only son "of the bunch" - all those girls! I even remember admiring his first big house in Rosenburg, which later inspired me when I studied Architecture. One of my early projects was a house - and I distinctly remember adopting it loosely after Ron's house. It was all inspirational in one way or another.

Ron will be greatly missed - the Hollas Gatherings will never be the same without him around, but we know he will be with us.

To all the Family: especially Aunt Earline, Carol, Connie, Peggy, Roxie, Dustin, Cody, Bryce and Mackenzie - we will all share in your loss and send our prayers to all of you.

with sincere Regards, Scott and Melanie Hollas
