“ Linda, my forever friend. I will always remember the talks we had. Even though we didn't speak to each other very often, we always picked up where we lefted off. You had been on my mind. I'm sorry I didn't call you when I felt that I needed to reach out. I will forever regret that. You were like my second mother. Always letting me know how much you loved me and my kids. I loved you so much and will miss you.

To the family... My deepest condolences... You had the best parents anyone could ever ask for. May the Lord grant you peace. You're mom was very proud of you all. She always said that to me. Love you all.
