“ My running mate, fellow political activist and dear friend-you are remembered and missed! Jenny, I know you best-what a loving daughter you were to Lucylle. God will put a star in your crown! Jackie, I most remember you from your young years. You and your family were always in her heart, tho far away. All her sons-in-law were good to Lucylle and a source of pride for her. She rested easy knowing her girls were well taken care of. Grandchildren, know you were her pride and joys! Some may remember costumes or clothes sewn for them with love in every stitch! Leslie, you are the most like Lucylle, even to your talents!

Gene, you took good care of Lucylle. Hope you get thru all this remembering the good times. I love you! Lyn

“ Gene, Leslie, Jackie, Jenny and families---
We grieve at Lulu's passing. We shared so many good times with her and will miss her greatly. As we all began to enter our "golden years", her favorite quote was from the actress, Bettye Davis: "Old age ain't no place for sissies." She resolved not to be one if she could help it, and I think that she was able to keep that resolve, aided by our good Lord, and you, her family, as she underwent the deterioration of her health in the last few years.
She was a very good friend to Earl and me throughout the years, and we both send our very deepest sympathy and much love to you all at this time.
