

Rose Marie Allred

February 20, 1933 - June 2, 2026

Rose Marie Allred, 93, died on June 2, 2026 at her home in Rosenberg, Texas. A native of Dodd City, Texas, she was born to Earnest Morgan and Leona Fry Morgan. She and her husband moved to Rosenberg in 1965 from Fort Worth, Texas. Rose was an elementary school teacher at Lamar Consolidated School District until she resigned in 1978 to travel with her husband.

Rose leaves behind her much loved family, Karen Allred Campbell and husband Alton Campbell, Jr. of Galveston, her daughter in law Cindy Benton Allred of Richmond; five grandchildren, Jennifer Campbell Hulse and husband Chad of Dickinson, Kathrin Campbell Hulin and husband Jason of Katy, Brett Allred and wife Andrea of Richmond, Bryan Allred and wife Katherine of Magnolia, Morgan Campbell and wife Britney of Rosharon, and eleven great-grandchildren, Lillian and CJ Hulse, Lauren and Shelby Hulin, Silas and Weston Allred, Nolan, Kambria and Cassidy Allred, and Colten and Clifford Campbell, along with her sister Clara Morgan Hamner of Sherman, Texas, as well as many nieces and nephews.

She is preceded in death by Leeman Allred, the love of her life whom she was married to for 57 years, her son Gary Allred, sisters Wanda Morgan

Rushing and Jean Morgan Crow, and her mother and father.

A service will be held at 10:00 a.m Monday June 8,2026 at Davis Greenlawn with a graveside service to follow at Greenlawn Memorial Park.

Rose always carried a smile and always had nothing but kind words for those that knew her. She loved her family...and she also loved her caregivers who took wonderful care of her.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to you favorite charity.
