

Rose Marie Cmajdalka

July 24, 1941 - August 27, 2025

Rose Marie Cmajdalka was born in Rosenberg, TX on July 24, 1941, to the late Joseph Skalski and Helen Kumaga. Rose passed away at her residence on August 27, 2025, after a short illness.

Rose is survived by her husband of 63 years, Charles L. Cmajdalka; son Corey Cmajdalka of Sargent, TX; daughter Rachel Macha and husband Mark of East Bernard, TX; granddaughter Marissa Korenek and husband Jonah of Rosenberg, TX, along with great-granddaughter Theresa Korenek; sister-in-law Betty Hathorn and husband Jim; nephew Brent Hathorn, wife Anna and daughter Brooke; nephew Lane Hathorn, wife Shelby and sons Tucker and Tanner; and lastly Flash her kitty cat.

Rose was preceded in death by her father Joseph Skalski, mother Helen Skalski and sister Alice Skalski.

Rose worked for the City of Rosenberg until her retirement in 1999, when she began to care for granddaughter Marissa during the day. Rose "Nana" took great pride in caring for Marissa and spending quality time with her at the library and running errands. Nana and Marissa loved reading together and spent a lot of time watching and critiquing cooking shows and cartoons. Nana also enjoyed creating special snacks and lunches in the afternoons and during the summers. In addition to being Nana, she loved watching and taking care of wild birds and animals in her backyard. She always had a green thumb, potting plants around the house and helping Charles in the garden. She was an avid reader, enjoyed looking through cooking magazines, and never missed watching her “stories” on TV. Fall was one of her favorite times of the year and she loved attending craft shows and festivals. Rose leaves behind Flash and numerous memories of many cherished cats. Her greatest pleasure was spending time with family, especially great-granddaughter Theresa. Pallbearers are Jim Hathorn, Brent Hathorn, Lane Hathorn, Tucker Hathorn, Jaime Alvarado and Bob Kalin, and honorary pallbearer, Jonah Korenek. In lieu of flowers, please contribute to your local animal or rescue center.
