“ *this horrid, yet at times terribly important... even lifesaving technology led me here this fine day. google-ing a dear old lost friend will never be the same. after falling for her in an art history class i was never quite the same...
i'll never forget that feeling of being the one who loved her most in my mind anyways, while letting the complex nature of love college life..., and the fact that johnny hated me, bring me down. i'll never forget the feeling of doom picking her up at their trailer gave me. in retrospect...he was a great brother.
i should have gone to florence in retrospect. in 1988, she cryptically met a rogue i knew and got my phone #. she was regretfully married and living the heights...we hung out a few times but i am apparently one of destiny's cowards. i did tell her she was my one true love, over the phone of course. in the early 80's we smiled our way to the front row chairs at bruce springsteen@ the summit. she snapped some amazing photos. i hope those negatives will live forever, i never saw her more alive.*

“ My sincere condolences to the Laskoskie family. Although I didn't know Rosie well, whenever we were together she always made me laugh. I have a great memory about one of her cats but it would take to long to tell it here. But she did love her animals as she did her family. She owed me a ride to Freeport in the sports car which we will never be able to do now, but I will see you soon and we will make up for lost time. Your Heavenly home is far better than what was here on earth and I'm sure you will meet friends at the Rainbow Bridge that had been waiting patiently for you to cross with them. You knew how very much I love your father and I will make an effort to keep tabs on him for you, he is a very special man and you were a very lucky daughter to have had him. Rest in peace Rosie all wrapped up in a gold Isdened sheet and resting on a big white cloud....I'll miss you and all your adventures..

“ To Rosie's Family,
I am so saddened for your loss. I went to high school with Rosie, and I always admired her joy, enthusiasm and gusto for life! She seemed to enjoy every single day, and that rubbed off on me, and no doubt many others whose path she crossed.

“ We will miss Rosie so much. She was such a special person and we loved her. We didn't see her recently, kept saying we would get together & have lunch or something. We never were able to do that and now it's too late. We used to have annual August parties, which is how we got to know Rosie. She worked for a consulting firm while Randy worked for HISD. For several years she came to our parties & her joy for life, her smile, her beauty inside & out lit up a room. Rosie & Debbie shared the debilitating effects of Chronic Fatigue illness and understanding what each was going thru. We also shared a love of our pets. We were supposed to grow old & be those "crazy cat ladies".

Our love & thoughts are with Rosie's family during this difficult time. We hope you find peace in knowing that others share very deeply in your loss. Our prayers are with you.

Sincerely,
Debbie & Randy

“ Lawrence, Linda, Johnny, and family...

Words cannot express the sense of loss that I feel with Rosie now gone! A very dear and wonderful friend has departed forever, but that of course pales with your loss of a daughter and a sister. My thoughts and prayers are with you now, and always!

Rosie frequently said, "Thank you for being my friend." But thanks go to you all for sharing this beautiful person with myself and so many others. No one whose life she touched will soon forget her. Her memory will be in my heart forever!

Thanks for being my friend, dear Rosie!

We shared in a wonderful adventure of saving a dog under a bridge at Double Bayou.

I am very sorrowed by this news I received so far away from home. “ I first met Rosie when she was in high school working as a photography intern at the Suburbia Reporter in Richmond, where I was news reporter.

We lost touch for a number of years then reconnected while we were both living in the Los Angeles area and have remained friends ever since.

Rosie was a bright, beautiful woman and dear friend, whom I will surely miss.

My heart goes out to her family in their tragic loss.
