“ I worked with Ross while we were pilots for Continental Airlines.
We had many a layover and shared meals together.

He was always fun to fly with, have conversation with.
Ross was a great man, Great pilot.

“ I just learned of Ross's passing. I first met Ross in 1966 we were both pilots flying out of the same small airport in Houston. Ross went to work for the entertainer Kenny Rogers in 1978 flying Kenny's HS 125 business jet. Not too long after that Ross called me and said they needed another pilot and would I be interested in the job and moving to Los Angeles. I jumped at the chance and my wife and I moved to California.

Over the years Ross and I traveled the world together flying Kenny wherever he needed to go.

Those were wonderful years, we met so many interesting people and it seems like we were always laughing. We had bit parts in Kenny's movies, played tennis with celebrities and cruised the Caribbean on Kenny's yacht.

Ross was a good friend and I am sorry to say that over the years we lost contact with each other. My wife and I would like to express our sorrow over Ross's passing.

Ross was a good man, a good friend and a good pilot.
