

Rosie H. Kovar

July 22, 1908 - December 27, 2008

A funeral mass for Rosie H. Kovar, 100, of Needville, Texas, will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Tuesday, December 30, 2008, at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Needville. Interment will follow at Greenlawn Memorial Park in Rosenberg. The Rev. Joseph Phan will officiate the services.

Visitation is 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. with a rosary at 7 p.m. on Monday, December 29th in the Davis Funeral Chapel in Needville.

Rosie was born on July 22, 1908 in East Bernard to Joseph and Mary Kovar. She was a member of St. Michael's Catholic Church, the Altar Society, and the K.J.Z.T. as well as faithfully honoring her Savior through Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Rosie went to be with her Lord on Saturday, December 27, 2008.

Rosie was preceded in death by her parents, Joseph & Mary Kovar; her brother and sister-in-law, Joe & Henrietta Kovar; her sisters and brothers-in-law, Mary & S.A. Stavinoha, Annie & Richard Stavinoha, Elizabeth & Vaclav Barta, Frances & Lad Stavinoha, and Arnold Sury; a special cousin, Charlie Dybala, and nephews, Raymond, George, Dennis, & Sidney Joe Stavinoha. She is survived by her sister, Georgia Sury, a special cousin, Pauline Dybala, and four generations of nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will be her nephews, Jim, Bobby, Thomas & Jerome Sury and Joe & Sylvian Kovar.

The family would like to extend their appreciation to the staff of S.P.J.S.T. Home in Needville for their loving care of Rosie for the last 6 ½ years and to Houston Hospice in El Campo for their special loving care the last 1 ½ years.

The family requests that memorials be made to St. Michael's Building Fund, in lieu of flowers.

Tribute Wall

EE

“Rosie was a wonderful person. Many times I would see her all alone for many hours at St. Michael's Church adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. I am very inspired by her. She is a Saint indeed!”

Eileen Elster - January 08, 2009 at 12:00 AM